FATHER FALLS DEAD BESIDE ILL SON'S BED

Exertion of Restraining Druggist Jaycox in Convulsions Too Much for Aged Parent.

John J. Jaycox, sirty-five years old, of No. 110 Conkling street, Binghamton, was bending over the bed in which his son, Fred B. Jaycox, was having a convulsion, at the latter's home, No. 62 Grove street, this city, to-day, when the aged father began to gasp for breath. He went to a rear room and toppled over dead.

When the wife and the daughter-inlaw of Mr. Jaycox came upon his body they began screaming. Policeman Scanlan ran to their assistance, and after sending for an ambulance had all he could do to control the son, who had become violent.

When Dr. Dorcey came from St. Vincent's he said the father was past aid and he hurried to Bellevue Hospital with the son. At the hospital it was said that Jaycox was suffering from alcoholism.

druggist employed at No. 601 Elghth avenue. Some weeks ago his wife was sent to the hospital to be operated on for appendicitis, and last week when she returned her husband was in a very nervous state.

The young woman finally sent for Jaycox's aged father and mother, and they arrived last night. The younger Jaycox became more nervous with night and about 2 o'clock this morning began having convulsions. The old father and his gray-haired wife had all they could do to control him, and Mr. Jaycon's exertions are supposed to have been too much for his strength. Although the police and Bellevue physicians say there is no doubt that Jaycox's condition was brought about by an over-indulgence in drink, it is denied at his home that he has been dissipating. Mrs. Jaycox the wife, said her husband had simply been made nervous by her long slege in the hospi-

BRONX ZOO IS MINUS

Suspect Three Boys of Being the Vandals Who Destroyed Almost Priceless Specimens.

Director William T. Hornaday, of th Bronx Zoo, has reported to the polic the loss of thirty-three of the ver rarest eggs which, up to yesterday, had occupied a conspicuous place in a glass case in the Asiatic bird house of th park.
The loss was discovered to-day after the director and several of his staff were informed and the occupants of the bird house had passed an extremel restless night. An investigation immediately followed and it required n close scrutiny to learn what had dis turbed the rest of the delicate birds. tered and splashed with what were at Hornaday's priceless eggs. Excellent head work by the staff of the Zoo, assisted by dexterous manipulation of their feet, allowed them to tabulate

Exhibition of Foreign and Domestic Gowns.

We are showing advance Spring models in new French Gownsfor afternoon, evening, carriage or dinner wear-which are in every respect the latest word-in material, in fashioning, in coloring. They are of chiffon liberty satin, chiffon cloth and voile, laces, nets and the new mirage silk; princesse, empire and two-piece models; with novel trimmings - Egyptian and Spanish laces and Russian embroideries. Some of these charming gowns are imported directly for us, others are reproductions of the exclusive designs of famous French couturieres and in but few instances are there duplicates of a model.

The prices range from $58.75 to $374.00.

Infants' Sox: Matchless Stocks for the Opening

HE great Hosiery business this Macy store enjoys is great "from the ground up"-from matchless assortments of Hosiery for tots to unsurpassed stocks of Hosiery for adults To-day we announce the "Spring opening" of Infants Sox, for which event we have ready a stock of over 27,000 pairs, selected by our Hosiery chief in English and German markets a year ago. We know of no other store that imports anything like such a

The stock embraces 36 different styles, each of which is shown in a great variety of shades and color combinations. Prices range from 24c. to 62c. a pair-much lower than the prices asked elsewhere for similar Hosiery, because we are direct importers, controlling, in many instances, even the designs.
